

WRIGLEY MANSION

EVENT VENUES

for parties of 10 to 1,500

AROUND THE MANSION

LIVING ROOM

The stunning Living Room features a grand fireplace, the original Wrigley family Steinway player piano and grand pieces of vintage art. A new rug echoes a vintage Persian pattern while the wrought iron sconces echo the 1930s era. The hand hand-painted ceiling has been carefully restored. The Living Room can be reserved in addition to the Verandas for larger groups.

Two steps. Seats 50 guests.

VERANDAS

With the best views in the house that provide nearly 360-degree views, these beautiful additions to the home create a luxurious event space. Grand windows treatments add softness and Art Deco inspired crystal chandeliers light up the space. Never miss a sunset while dining in the Verandas. eats maximum 120 guests.

AROUND THE MANSION

FORMAL DINING ROOM

The stunning Living Room features a grand fireplace, the original Wrigley family Steinway player piano, and grand pieces of vintage art. The rug echoes an antique Persian pattern while the wrought iron sconces echo the 1930s era. The hand hand-painted ceiling has been carefully restored. Two steps. Seats 50 guests.

BREAKFAST ROOM

The Breakfast Room was Mrs. Wrigley's favorite because of the rising sun and spectacular Camelback Mountain views. Adjacent to the Rotunda, it features a dramatic round Swarovski crystal chandelier, chartreuse dining chairs, a custom carpet from Nepal and contemporary artwork by artist Donald Sultan. Four steps. Seats 10 guests.

AROUND THE MANSION

COLINA ROOM

The Colina Room showcases stunning views of the city, a beamed ceiling, fireplace and sitting room. It is perfect for larger gatherings. Formerly Mr. Wrigley's bedroom, it includes a private en suite bathroom with original Catalina tile, and a hallway connecting to the Catalina Room (Mrs. Wrigley's room). It also connects to a spacious gallery that overlooks Geordie's Lounge. Access is from the Grand Staircase or elevator. Seats 40.

CATALINA ROOM

Once Mrs. Wrigley's bedroom, this beautiful room has a hand-knotted Arabella rug and a fireplace surrounded with Catalina tile. Cornices are original, as is the chandelier with amethyst from the Four Peaks mine in Arizona. An adjacent "sleeping porch" offers gorgeous western views.

Access via Grand Staircase or elevator.
Seats 40 guests.

AROUND THE MANSION

PASADENA ROOM

Once a guest bedroom, the Pasadena Room features modern crystal chandeliers, an Art Deco fireplace surrounded by Catalina tile, and an en suite bathroom. The chairs are original to the Formal Dining Room and blue walls highlight computer art by late owner Geordie Hormel, and the Poppy series by American artist Donald Sultan. The attached balcony shows off spectacular views. Access to this room is by the Grand Staircase or by elevator. Two steps. Seats 12 guests.

GENEVA ROOM

The Moroccan ceiling and Moravian star pendants echo the painted ceilings in the Rotunda and Living Room. The ochre walls were painted with a four-part decorative strié effect for texture, and guests enjoy an en suite bathroom and access to the balcony overlooking Camelback Mountain. Access from the Grand Staircase or elevator. Two steps. Seats 12 guests.

AROUND THE MANSION

GARDEN ROOM

Once the family garage and gardens, the Garden Room is now a versatile multi-level event space. It includes a private entrance, bar areas, restrooms and beautiful city and mountain views. The Garden Room has direct access to the Garden Terrace and both have helped create many memories, from weddings to life milestone celebrations, to corporate events. The Garden Room and Garden Terrace can accommodate 250-500 guests.

GARDEN TERRACE

AROUND THE MANSION

SUNSET TERRACE

Inspiring celebrations, distinctive corporate events, and storybook weddings. Special memories are made here! Guests are awed by sweeping city and mountain views, the charm of the 1930s Mansion, and excellent cuisine. You may host intimate gatherings to seating for 250, or reception-style events for up to 1,500.

THE SALON

Once the chauffeur's bedroom, this elegant salon is where ladies can get away before a dinner party, host a tea party or book as part of a wedding package. The sofa is original the private bathroom features tiles from the Wrigley's own Catalina Island tile factory. Access includes 10 steps.

